Vocation Booth Space Policies and Regulations

1. The Marian Days Organizer Committee (MDOC) reserves the right to place priorities on a first come first serve basis, regardless of the ranking or title of the applicants.
2. Due to limited space, MDOC reserves the right to stop accepting reservations at any time.
3. MDOC will reject and close any approved reservation if it is being used by anyone other than the applicant, at any time.
4. MDOC will designate a specific space # for each applicant on the date specified below. MDOC will not tolerate a self-relocation of any booth and reserve the right to close such booth immediately.
5. No sales transaction of any kind can be conducted at all areas designated as Vocation Booth Space.
6. No gathering for eating/drinking/music/entertainment of any kind. Please control the noise level when it appears to be troublesome to the neighboring booths.
7. Keep the areas inside/outside of the booth clean and tidy at all times.
8. All trash, printed materials to be clear, no debris left behind by 8:00pm on July 12th, 2025.
9. Please return all chairs and table in working order to the MDOC.
10. MDOC reserves the right to inspect and quality check booth spaces at all times. To maintain the safety and holy atmosphere of Marian Days, any/all violations may result in early closing of the booth with no refund.
11. Vocation Booth Application follows the schedule listed in this table:
